OVERVIEW

Myra has over 23 years of collection experience just with Hellmuth & Johnson. She focuses her practice mostly on preparation and filing of residential and commercial mechanic's liens on behalf of construction companies and contractors; and judgment collections and remedies on behalf of all types of clients including individuals, corporations and partnerships, banking institutions and community associations. She has extensive knowledge of the collection process and can handle nearly every aspect of it starting with the initial demand letter all the way to satisfying the judgment, which provides our clients with a high-level service at the valuable rate of a paralegal.
